ALEXANDRA HORVATH,

Case No. 05-60172

Debtor.
-----X

FINAL APPLICATION FOR ALLOWANCE OF COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES OF BACKENROTH FRANKEL &
KRINSKY, LLP, PURSUANT TO SECTION 330 OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

Backenroth Frankel & Krinsky, LLP ("BFK"), attorneys for Alexandra Horvath (the "Debtor"), as and for its final application for allowance of compensation and reimbursement of expenses, pursuant to §330 of the Bankruptcy code, respectfully represents as follows:

APPLICATION

1. On or about December 7, 2005 (the "Filing Date"), the Debtor filed a Chapter 11 petition.
2. The Debtor is the spouse of Joseph Greenblatt, who has a related case in this Court, and who is the principal of the numerous Maywood cases also pending in this Court.

3. As a consequence of Joseph Greenblatt's financial turmoil, his family has also encountered financial problems, which necessitated the Debtor's filing.

4. Indeed, as of the Filing Date, a foreclosure sale of the Debtor's Westhampton residence was pending, and a foreclosure complaint had been filed against the Debtor's New York residence.

5. The New Jersey Attorney General was seeking to enforce a seizure order in New Jersey State Court proceedings as well.

6. Against this background, upon the advice of the Applicant, the Debtor filed her Chapter 11 petition with the intention of liquidating certain assets, reducing her liabilities and making distributions to creditors in an orderly way, with the ultimate goal of obtaining financial stability for her family.

7. In that regard, the Debtor believed that she had equity in her real properties of about $1.3 million, and, aside from claims arising from her husband's problems, the Debtor's unsecured debt totaled only about $200,000, most of which predated the bankruptcy by at least one year.

8. Accordingly, the undersigned and the Debtor contemplated that if the Debtor sold her Westhampton residence and her New York residence, and managed her finances conservatively going forward, she would be able to pay all of her creditors in full, and, ultimately, lessen the blow to her family arising from her husband's problems.

9. It should be noted in that upon the Applicant's advice, the Debtor freely acknowledged that her husband contributed the funds needed to purchase the family homes. Accordingly, the Debtor anticipated that claims would be made to recover those funds. The Applicant researched the issue and determined that the Debtor had possible defenses to such claims, including, without limitation, defenses arising from the boilerplate proposition that transfers from a husband to a wife are not fraudulent where such transfers further a husband's family support obligations. E.g. Federal Deposit Insurance Co. v. Malin 802 F.2d 12 (2d Cir. 1986).

10. In an addition, the Applicant and the Debtor maintained that the appreciation in the value of the real estate, which constituted almost all of the Debtor's realizable property, belonged to the Debtor's estate alone.

11. Notwithstanding the Applicant's best efforts to execute the Chapter 11 strategy described above, the Debtor's ability to work with counsel to implement the strategy quickly deteriorated due to the many pressures she was under during that difficult period.

12. Ultimately, therefore, upon the motion of the United States Trustee, the Bankruptcy Court appointed a Chapter 7 Trustee to liquidate the real properties and take charge of the Debtor's estate.

13. Notwithstanding the appointment of the Trustee, the Applicant continued to work with all of the parties to create and implement a global settlement agreement among Joseph Greenblatt, Max Greenblatt, the Debtor and the various trustees of their respective bankruptcy estates. The Applicant incurred unpaid fees equal to many multiples of the amounts requested herein to effectuate the settlement and ensure the parties' continued cooperation thereafter.

14. Thus, the Applicant bestowed substantial benefits, not only upon the Debtor's estate, but on all the estates by negotiating the omnibus settlement between the estates, and thereafter expending enormous amounts of time in serving as liaison with the Trustees to provide information to prosecute claims and obtain recoveries for creditors. No compensation is requested herein for such services.

15. In order for BFK to fulfill its responsibilities to the creditors and the Court, for the period from the inception of the case through the conversion of the case on April 1, 2006 it was necessary for BFK to expend $ 59,861.00 in time charges and $3,235.98 in disbursements, for a total of $$ 63,096.98, calculated as follows:

ATTORNEY	HOURS	RATE	TOTAL
AJB 05	22.7	$465	$10,555.50
06	41.0	$485	$19,885.00
MAF 05	32.3	$410	$13,243.00
06	35.9	$435	$15,616.50
SAK 05	1.0	$375	$ 375.00
RW 06	1.2	$155	$ 186.00
Total Time Charges			$ 59,861.00
Disbursements			$ 3,235.98
Total			$ 63,096.98

A schedule of time charges and disbursements is annexed hereto as Schedule A. Under the omnibus settlement negotiated by applicant between the estates, a $64,000 carve-out was provided for applicant out of the proceeds of sale of the New York residence owned by Alexandra Horvath, in recognition of the substantial services rendered by applicant in this and the related cases.

16. A breakdown of the time charges follows for the entire period of this case follows:

Project Category	Total Hours	Total Fees
Asset Analysis and Recovery	17.5	$8,001.50
Asset Disposition	6.6	$3,158.50
Business Operations	0.1	$41.00
Case Administration	34.2	$15,323.50
Fee/Employment Applications	8.0	$3,525.00
Litigation - New Jersey Attorney General TRO Application	29.0	$12,742.50
Litigation - United States Trustee Conversion Motion	16.0	$7,270.00
Meeting of Creditors	10.7	$4,714.50
Relief From Stay Proceedings	12.0	$5,084.50

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Applicant respectfully request that the fees be awarded in the amount requested and that the Court grant such other, further and different relief as is just and proper.

CERTIFICATE OF PROFESSIONAL

In accordance with the Guidelines for Fees and Disbursements for Professionals In Southern District of New York Bankruptcy Cases (the "Guidelines"), Abraham Backenroth, a member of the law firm of Backenroth, Frankel & Krinsky, LLP, 489 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10017 (the "Applicant"), hereby certifies as follows:

1. I have read the foregoing Application for Allowance of Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses by Counsel for the Debtor (the "Application").

2. To the best of my knowledge, information and belief, formed after reasonable inquiry, the Application complies with the mandatory guidelines set forth in the Guidelines, except as otherwise noted therein.

3. To the best of my knowledge, information and belief, formed after reasonable inquiry, the fees and disbursements sought by Applicant fall within bounds of the Guidelines, except as specifically noted and described in the Application.

4. Except to the extent that fees and disbursements are prohibited by the Guidelines, the fees and disbursements sought by Applicant are billed at rates, and in accordance with, practices customarily employed by Applicant and generally accepted by Applicant's clients.

5. The Debtor has been provided, with statements of fees and disbursements that accrued during the months relating to the fee requested.

6. In providing a reimbursable service, Applicant does not make a profit on that service.

7. In charging for a particular service, Applicant does not include in the amount for which reimbursement is sought the amortization of the cost of any investment, equipment, or capital outlay.

8. In seeking reimbursements for a service which Applicant justifiably purchased or contracted for from a third party, Applicant requests reimbursements only for the amount billed to Applicant and paid to such vendor.
